A WELCOME HYMN.

Sung in a Conference at Merthyr-Tydfil, held on the 9th of June, 1850, while the Apostle JOHN TAYLOR was present, who was about leaving, on his mission, for France.

COME, ye humble Saints of Cambria,
Sing to praise the Lord on high;
For his people and their blessings
Do increase and multiply.
Here, we witness an Apostle,
Sent again to cheer our hearts,
(From the Valley of the Mountains),
Who the living words imparts.

Once before we hail'd his presence—
Cambrian worthies heard his voice;
And tho' "other lips" were speaking,
Yet the throng did all rejoice:
Now again, O Lord, thy servant
May be honour'd by us all,
In abiding by his counsels,
And in listening to his call.

Pray the Lord to speed his mission
To proclaim the word of God,
That the French may know the Saviour,
And escape his iron rod:
Let our nation do their duty—
Let them feel for others too,
So that many other people,
Like themselves, be born anew.
